DEATH OF MR. J. R. SCURRY SHOCK TO THE COMMUNITY

City Clerk and Treasurer Suddenly Expires Shortly After Arriving at His Office Friday Morning.

The city was shocked on Friday morning on learning of the sudden death of Mr. John R. Scurry. He had not been very well for several days, but had been attending to his duties at his office and he came down Friday morning as usual about 9 o'clock, and soon after arriving at his office in the city hall he died. It is supposed it was the result of heart failure.

Mr. Scurry had been the clerk and treasurer of the city for the past six years and had been a very efficient and accommodating official. He lived in Georgetown for some years in his early manhood, but had spent the greater part of his life at Chappells, and was for many years the bookkeeper for Geo. T. Reid, when the gentleman did a very large business. A few years ago he came to Newberry to accept a similar position with Purcell & Scott, which he held until his election as city clerk.

Mr. Scurry is survived by his widow, who was before her marriage Miss Boazman, and eight children, two daughters and six sons, J. B. Scurry, who lives at Chappells; Mrs. Robinson, who lives in Bamberg; James Scurry, who is with the Jefferson hotel in Richmond, Va.; Jesse Scurry, with the Otteray at Greenville; B. M. Scurry of Chappells, and Miss Memy Scurry and Pope and Ferde Scurry of Newberry.

The remains will be taken to Chap-pells Saturday afternoon and interment will be had there.

Mr. Scurry was a most genial gentleman and had a large circle of friends who will be pained at the news of his death. His family have the sympathy of the community.

The man that is a slave to none, none slave to him, can well rejoice.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT.

Notice is hereby given that the un-designed, as administratrix of the estate of J. W. Matthews, deceased, will make final settlement on said estate as such administratrix in the office of the probate judge for Newberry county S. C. at 11 o'clock in the forenoon on Monday, January 3, 1916, and immediately thereafter apply for letters dismissive as such administratrix. All persons having claims against said estate will present them duly attested on or before that date and those indebted to the estate will make payment of the same.

WILLIE MAE MATTHEWS,
Adm'x Estate J. W. Matthews,
Dec. 2, 1915. Deceased.

My Hickory Stick has again disappeared. I probably left it in some store or office. It is home made by McK. Hutchison, and I prize it very highly and will appreciate it if whoever has found it will return it to The Herald and News office. It has no polish or varnish. Made from Newberry hickory given me by Jas.
Henderson from a piece of wood cut by his father. So you see it has several valuable considerations.
Please send it to me. E. H. AULI.
